how quiet it is in here
                    soft and alone
a seashell of space
                    infinite
                                trembling
the light streams
                    through my house-eyes
the curtains sway
                    and the branches
                                outside my shell
  are waving to me
