

Riddles from The Lost Lagoon

Reg Down
© Copyright 2010

All rights reserved. No part of this publication, in part or in whole may be reproduced, transmitted or utilized in any form, without the permission of the author, except for brief quotations in critical articles and reviews.

A few riddles for young and old. They were posed by a dragonfly to Tiptoes Lightly.

*Wind beater,
Mozzie eater!
Side slipper,
Helicopter!
Buzzy guzzler,
Fairy puzzler!
Who am I?"

(dragonfly)

*"Wave maker,
Leaf shaker!
Branch bender,
Storm sender!
Fire fanner,
Makes a banner
Whirl!
Who am I?"

(wind)

The following is a triple riddle leading to the same answer.

*"Humans know them,
Beasts dream them,
Plants live them,
Stones sleep them all unknown—
Who am I?"*

*"They swim all around us
Like fish in the seas;
As huge as elephants,
As small as fleas.
Some taste like honey,
Some sting like bees,
Some close doors,
Some hold keys!
Who am I?"*

*"Harmless as hedgehogs,
Curled in a ball;
Dangerous as dragons,
Fire and all!
Some last a day,
And some last forever,
Lots can be dumb,
But some are real clever.
Who am I?"*

(ideas)